

PRODUCT PREVIEW SPORTS IDIOMS

FROM PART 1

◀◀▶▶▶

To get an early start on something (before someone else starts).

Origins: Horse Racing

To Get A Head Start

FROM PART 2

◀◀▶▶▶

Down to the wire

A situation where the outcome is not decided until the very end.

Origins: Horse Racing

Ositos English

PRODUCT PREVIEW SPORTS IDIOMS

FROM PART 3

Go overboard

I think Charlie went a bit overboard when he spent so much money on my birthday present.

.....

We told her not to but she really went overboard and bought the most expensive laptop in the store.

.....

Sometimes he goes overboard and studies until the morning without getting any sleep.

EXAMPLES

FROM PART 4

QUIZ TIME

If you have run into problems, you have _____.

hit a twist

hit a twig

16

hit a snap

hit a snag

Ositos English

PRODUCT PREVIEW SPORTS IDIOMS

FROM PART 5

The slide features a dark background with a red spotlight effect. On the left, a large trophy is shown. In the center, four white 3D figures sit on a bench. To their right is a red, smiling cartoon character with a single eye and a striped tail. On the far right, a 3D character of a man in a blue shirt and grey pants holds a microphone. A text box in the upper right lists idioms, and a navigation bar is in the top right corner.

SPORTS IDIOMS

PART 5

Today's idioms

- keep your head above water
- learn the ropes
  - let her rip
- a level playing field
  - a long shot

FROM PART 6

The slide has a purple and yellow background. In the center, a silhouette of a person is shown in a dynamic pose. Below the silhouette is a cartoon owl wearing a graduation cap and holding a pencil. A mouse cursor icon is positioned near the owl. The slide contains several text boxes with idioms and their meanings, and a navigation bar at the top.

Idiom match

Match the idiom with the meaning

To make the cut

Neck and neck

No Sweat

Not playing with a full deck

To be on target

Accurately described or forecast; correct

Something easy to accomplish

In an informal way, crazy or not mentally sound

Extremely close or even in a race

To succeed at something or meet a requirement

Ositos English

PRODUCT PREVIEW SPORTS IDIOMS

FROM PART 7

On the Ball

I couldn't sleep well last night, so I am not on the ball today.

When his opponent tried to sneak in a pass, the defender was on the ball and stopped it.

This mess wouldn't have happened had you been on the ball.

EXAMPLES

FROM PART 8

In what situation have you had to step up to the plate and take on a challenging task or responsibility? How did you handle it?

When was the last time you felt you were in a race against time? What happened?

Is it a good idea to take in the shot in the dark during a big exam? Why or why not?

Imagine a friend tells you that they plan to confront their teacher about their grades at school, even though they know the teacher is very strict. What advice would you give your friend, considering that they could be skating on thin ice?

Have you ever found yourself in a situation where you felt like you were not in the same league as others? How did you deal with it and what did you learn from that experience?

LET'S TALK!

Ositos English

PRODUCT PREVIEW SPORTS IDIOMS

FROM PART 9

Origins:
Baseball

TAKE A RAIN CHECK

Used to tell someone that you cannot accept an invitation now, but will at a later time.

The slide features a purple background with a baseball player in the top left, a cartoon man in a suit on the right, and a small blue character with an umbrella in the bottom left. Navigation arrows are in the top right.

FROM PART 10

QUIZ TIME

This is important for everyone in the class. Try not to ____.

drop the pass

pass the drop

drop the ball

pass the ball

17

The quiz slide has a dark blue background with a large green number '17' in the center. It features two question mark icons at the top and navigation arrows at the bottom right.

Ositos English